Public-Policy Advocacy

SHRM's public-policy positions are developed with member and volunteer input and guidance. SHRM advocates for these positions with member support on Capitol Hill, in state legislatures and before federal regulatory agencies to advance the interests of the HR profession.

Members engage throughout the year in e-mail and letter-writing campaigns as well as face-to-face interactions with lawmakers and their staffs to share the HR perspective and discuss workplace issues.

A-Team members also receive e-mail alerts that provide the latest updates on federal and state public-policy developments and regulatory changes, as well as ways they can have an impact on the key issues of the day.

Public-Policy Hot Topics

HR public-policy issues dominate the discussion on Capitol Hill and in federal agencies. Key issues that SHRM focuses on include:

- SHRM membership is individual, so your membership follows you. Please make sure to keep your contact information current, especially when changing jobs or addresses.
- SHRM membership stays with the member even if he or she leaves the company.
- For individuals paying U.S. taxes, SHRM annual dues are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes, but may be deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses, except that, under IRC Section 162(e), 1% of the annual dues are allocable to lobbying expenses and are therefore not deductible.
